Chat Room:

Mean Posts & Social Exclusion

Andy and Kat are concerned about their friend John who is hurt by Razor's online posts. Join them in their discussion in how they can help John. There are three options to choose from for each decision they need to make. Select the answer you think is the best solution. The best solution gives you 3 points, the next best gives you 2 points and the last gives you 1 point.

Type of Resource:

This is a printable quiz from PageWerkz that may be handed out to students to teach them how to act upon situations where they witness cyber bullying or become the actual victims of cyber-bullying. Kids will be asked to make decisions on how to respond to a situation where one of their friends (John) is being cyber bullied by another friend (Razor). The actual courseware features customized, animated responses of Kat based on the responses chosen by the student. It also features tips at the end of the responses so that students will learn how to handle their emotions when dealing with cyber bullying either for them-

How to use this Resource:

You may use this resource if you are a teacher who wants to impart tips on emotional learning to your students who may witness/experience cyber bullying. Open the topic by citing possible effects of cyber bullying or being mean and trolling others on the internet. You can then print this quiz and let the students answer. Afterwards, you can encourage students to share their thoughts on cyber bullying, their coping mechanisms and how to avoid being a cyber bully or being a victim of

Correct answer for the Question in this Resource:

- For those who answer 1, give 2 points. Great advice as John should not let Razor affect him. This is the best choice.
- For those who answer 2, give 0 point. Revenge will only cause the fight to continue and both will be hurt.
- For those who answer 3, give 1 point. This reply may or may not stop Razor from bullying John

More Details about the Resource:

Cywell is the first of its kind fun, highly engaging, interactive courseware produced by leading e-publisher Amdon and SOOS-OIO designed to provide students a guide for dealing with online security and safety threats. With just 10 minutes a day for 1 week, both parents/students/teachers can learn about how they can spot warning signs of online dangers that may easily be overlooked by regular people.

What's awesome about Cywell is how it tackles not just protection from online threats but also provides tips on improving one's emotional wellbeing while interacting with other people online. To keep readers engaged, the program is designed in bright, fun colors, peppered with animation clips and lively game immersion. Students will also be inspired to complete game badges because they stand a chance to win movie vouchers.
